

Prysmian's Draka EHC Named Best Supplier for Ropes and Traveling Cables in Elevator World's Ellie Awards

Highland Heights, Ky., December 5, 2025 – Prysmian's Draka EHC has been named the Best Supplier for Ropes/Traveling Cables and runner-up for Best Supplier, Safety Products in the 2025 Elevator Industry (Ellie) Awards, presented by Elevator World.

For the past eight years, the Ellies have recognized North American vertical-transportation businesses that have gone above and beyond for their customers, employees, and communities. Winners were recognized at the National Association of Elevator Contractors 2025 Convention and Expo held in Houston.

"We're proud to once again be recognized by the elevator industry for our commitment to service, innovation, and quality," said Rich Parvesse, Elevators & Escalators Business Senior Vice President for Prysmian's Draka EHC. "These Ellie Awards validate the work our teams put into engineering solutions that raise the standard for performance and safety, year after year."

Prysmian's Draka EHC line continues to support safe and efficient vertical transportation with a comprehensive portfolio of elevator and escalator products, including wire rope, coated suspension means, traveling cables, rope brakes, handrails, and more. Prysmian's Draka EHC products also provide industry-leading warranties to help customers achieve the longest possible product service life.

Prysmian's Draka's EHC and the other recipients of the 2025 Ellie Awards will be featured in the December issue of Elevator World.
